Bekasi, Indonesia.

I am an active 5th-semester student at the State Islamic University Sunan Gunung Djati in Bandung, pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Computer Engineering. With an academic background in technology and non-academic experiences through committee involvement and campus projects, I have honed my leadership skills and developed a high level of self-confidence. I possess expertise in team management and efficient time management to fulfill responsibilities effectively. Personally, I am always enthusiastic about continuous growth and making the most out of every opportunity available.
